

JUNE/JULY EVENTS

Enjoy these upcoming events in our hometown, compiled by Tualatin Tomorrow, the citizen long-range vision committee where arts and culture-related goals identified by residents are monitored. To submit an item, email larry.mcclure@gmail.com.

SUMMER CONCERTS AT THE COMMONS

Friday evening lakeside concerts at 6:30 p.m. in July and August at the Lake are a popular way to meet neighbors and visitors. Enjoy food and beverages outside several restaurants or just bring your own blanket and chairs and spread out on the grass.

July 1, Ben Rice (Americana, blues, funk); July 8, The Junebugs (folk, rock); July 15, Jilt (classic rock); July 22, Johnny Limbo & the Lugnuts (rock and roll) during Art Splash

FREE MOVIES ON THE COMMONS

Saturday nights, about 9 p.m. July 2 "Happy Feet"; July 9, "Minions"; July 16, "Open Season Scared Silly"; July 23, "Hotel Transylvania 2." Grab your blankets and buy popcorn from Tualatin Youth Advisory Council.

JULY WATERCOLOR CLASSES AT TUALATIN HERITAGE CENTER.

Call 503-691-1586 or see amanarts.com for registration details.

Beginning and Advanced Watercolor Classes. Award-winning artist Linda Aman (formerly of Tualatin, now in Boise) offers personal assistance with materials provided for use in class. Her popular classes will be held Sunday, July 10, 1:30-5:30 p.m.; Monday, July 11 and Tuesday, July 12, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. or 1:30-5:30 p.m., $30 per session.

Watercolor Pen with Watercolor Workshop. Friday, July 8, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

We will paint with watercolor and a bleed-able pen/pencil to create a look that is unique and works well for journaling. You will learn the painting & pen methods step-by-step. If you have taken the Pen with Watercolor Workshop before, this will be a new adventure. Please bring a quarter sheet of watercolor paper stretched to work on. Workshop fee is $95 including lunch and materials used in class.

Seashells on Aquabord Watercolor Workshop. Saturday, July 9, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

We will be painting on Aquabord with different techniques using: watercolor painting, lifting, salting, imaging, gold leaf effects etc. We will bring a new look to shells. The Aquabord will be provided as well as the technique materials. There are several different shell images to choose from. Workshop fee is $95 including lunch and materials used in class.

SYNCHRONIZE YOUR BRAIN AND LEGS

ANOTHER LOOK AT THE BIG ONE

July 21, 7 p.m. Tualatin Heritage Center Geology instructor Sheila Alfsen asks if we are overdue for a Cascadia subduction earthquake. Will everything west of the Cascades be toast? There is a great body of evidence that gives us these answers and the first clues we have come from our coastline. Geology instructor Sheila will describe how to sort out the truth from the hype.

ART SPLASH COMING SOON!

Tualatin's annual ArtSplash Art Show and Sale will be July 22-24, 2016 at the Commons. Northwest artists will be showcasing their talents in watercolor, acrylics, photography, oil, jewelry, ceramics, and more.
